TEST HANDICAP
GOES TO EVERETT

Empire City Race Track, N. Y., July 20.—Everett, backed from 6 to 1 to 10 to 5, easily won the Test handicap, one mile, here to-day, defeating a high class field. The race was marred by an unfortunate break by the favorite, Hastings, when the barrier was sprung. He managed to finish, however.

First race—selling, two-year-olds, $400 added, five and a half furlongs—Ladazette (5 to 1) first, Hestagon (8 to 1) second, The Hague (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:07.
Second race—selling, handicap, three-year-olds and up, $400 added, one mile and twenty yards—Gilding Belle (13 to 1) first, Falcada (6 to 1) second, Noon (9 to 2) third. Time, 1:41 1/5.
Third race—selling, three-year-olds and up, $400 added, six furlongs—Jeanne D'Arc (8 to 10) first, Sixty (4 to 1) second, Royal Onyx (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:11 2/5.
Fourth race—the Test handicap, three-year-olds and up, $2,000, one mile—Everett (6 to 5) first, Apache (4 to 1) second, Hastings (2 to 1) third. Time, 1:39 1/5.
Fifth race—handicap, two-year-olds, $500 added, six furlongs—Novelty (7 to 5) first, Star Charter (7 to 2) second, Beth (4 to 1) third. Time, 1:13 1/5.
Sixth race—four-year-olds and up, $400 added, one mile and a sixteenth—Imitator (6 to 5) first, Banbury (6 to 1) second, Bad News (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:47 1/5.

McNickle—Rogers.
A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to John A. McNickle, of 410 North Twenty-seventh Street, and Jennie M. Rogers, of 415 North Twenty-seventh Street.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

With the season half gone and the Colts tramping on the cellar floor, Owner Bradley and Jack Lawlor, of the Richmond contingent, are going to make the efforts of their lives no later than Right Now. Already First Baseman Brannan and Pitcher Crouch have been signed up to help the team out of the hole, and there is every probability of another catcher coming to town. This catcher is Laney Lodge, who caught for Richmond College two seasons ago. Lodge is in the city, and he and Mr. Bradley have had talks.

Lodge was one of the best college catchers seen about these parts for many, many years, and in college hitting he was a wonder. Since he left college he has been playing semi-professional ball in Maryland, where he has made good everywhere he has played, and it would seem that he is now ready to butt into the ranks of the professionals. The first thing about Lodge that makes the managers want him is that he can hit and hit consistently.

Win Clarke's Pirates will dally with the Colts this afternoon in the Broad Street Park, and the hope is that the Colts will manage to keep them on the floor. There is no betting still at this time. Clarke, although still on the floor, has done things to Richmond this week, and it will be a relief to get them on the home grounds and see exactly how it is done.

Jake Wells's absence from Virginia just at this time has given rise to a whole lot of talk among the managers as to the holiday receipts and the league sinking fund. All of which is somewhat foolish and rather futile. The officers of the Virginia League are not going to run away with the money bag, and the managers know it. Every one of them knows that Jake Wells merely took the office of president of the league because the magnates insisted on it. He told the magnates at the time that he would not have the time to look into every matter personally, and they told him that he would not have to. Now they howl because Wells is not able to be present in every little meeting that they choose to have.

Manager Steve Griffin, of telegraphic politeness, is now issuing statements as to when, where and how he is going to get pitchers to take the places made vacant by Mayberry and Fanwell. Griffin is not going to resign. He is going to remain in charge of the Danville club and keep up his efforts for the pennant.

It was a chilly day for the Richmond Council team yesterday. The thermometer did not go lower than normal, but there is not a player on the Council team that will not swear that the day was drear and cold, and that the only reason it did not snow was that the frost was too thick.

Even at that the game was most interesting. The way Non Curvilinear Cutchins went after grounders, before and after they had slipped past him, was really nifty. And did anybody notice Johnny Powers playing centre and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

Said when a fly ball came? He was really scientific in his judgment. One less scientific would certainly stumble on the right way once, but Johnny—nothing doing.

RALEIGH LIKELY TO LOSE ITS TEAM

League Directors Accept Franchise From Present Management.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., July 20.—After threshing over the situation from 8 o'clock until past midnight, the directors of the Eastern Carolina Baseball League, in session here, voted to accept the Raleigh franchise from the present management and continue the six-team league until Raleigh forms a new and substantial management or some other town arranges to take the franchise.

Under this arrangement the Raleigh team goes to-morrow to Goldsboro to play regular schedule until Saturday. In the meeting Wilmington was represented by J. E. Smith, Goldsboro by George Dewey, Wilson by J. C. Eagles, Rocky Mount by L. C. Levy, Fayetteville by Captain Napier. The present management of the Raleigh team reported $1,200 back salaries due the men, and Raleigh must raise this if a new management takes over the team. The only town known as a possible bidder for Raleigh's place is Durham.

DOCTORS OPERATE ON COUNCIL; USE NO GAS

Bitter Dust of Defeat Is Handed to Solons in Man's Size Packages and Nineteen Tallies Romp Home While the Crowd Groans With Pain—Box Score Like Chinese Puzzle.

Like Mike Murphy, it gives this chronicler of the acts of and happenings to the Council baseball team absolutely no pleasure to tell the expected, breathless, suspense-racked public, "I told you so." Johnny Powers, the poet, came back. There is no doubt about his coming back; everybody saw him. But he only stayed back for two innings, and six of the nineteen runs scored by the Doctors of Richmond yesterday came across the plate in those two innings. Also eight hits were consummated. The Conciliatory Councilmen managed to slip five runs across during the course of the game.

Not since the Old Guard went down to utter annihilation on the field of Waterloo in a vain attempt to wrest a monarchy out of a sunken road, not since Pickett's Immortals charged through the leaden hail on the field of Gettysburg, has a more glorious sight been seen than the Councilmen of Richmond taking their lives in their hip-pockets and going forward with the grim light of determination in their eyes to utter defeat on the diamond of the Broad Street Park. Nor a lip trembled, not a glance was averted, not a quail was shown; they saw their duty and took their medicine.

Couldn't Stay Back.
When the game started with the hitherto peerless twirler, Johnny Powers, in the box, the grand concourse that came for to see was full of confidence. No bunch of sawbones, no callow youths who had only come out of the dissecting hall, could put the shoulder of the Solons to the mat. Then came the shock. Awful shock.

Johnny Powers couldn't stay back. He looked good from the outside and acted well for a few minutes, and then it came. Stews of hits and hurricanes of runs; batsmen switching to base runners and base runners switching to scorers so rapidly that they couldn't be counted. So fast did the runs come home that at one stage of the game there were two Doctors fighting like terriers for a hold on a third bag, and they even had the nerve to protest when one of them was called out for cumbering the bases.

After the second inning Poetical Powers was relieved of active duty, and went to the centre field, while Jones took his place in the box. Jones confessed that he had not pitched a game of baseball for twenty years, but something had to be done, and he went in the box.

Then things began to happen sure enough. In the third and sixth innings the Doctors could not score, but in every other box they came from. One to six runs across the plate. In the ninth inning the runners looked like a procession that had no end. Then it was that Jones's delivery was solved, discovered, worked and battled out beyond hope of repair. Also there were some errors that would have made the shade of Casey at the Bat weep for joy.

What They Put Across.
Incidentally, by the grace of Providence and the errors of the Doctors, the Councilmen managed to put across three runs in the first four innings. Then, in the ninth inning, things happened. Parker, who had played through the innings with but three errors, slipped and fell, and the ball danced to left field. One man came in on that, and a minute later another error brought home two slices of bacon, which, by way of remark, was not enough to stack up against the great sides of hog that the Doctors had laid away on the table.

Sufficient to say that the pride of Richmond and the hope of the City Hall was yanked from the hoping stone and fed on the dust of defeat at the hands of those who had looked so easy, it seemed as lame to take the money.
